I discussed the attached draft letter to Senator Ribicoff with [redacted] OLC. I still do not believe the letter goes far enough in looking after the Agency's interest. I told [redacted] again, that the Agency should seek a total exemption. The implications of such an open-ended piece of legislation could present the Agency with potentially serious problems.

[redacted] although understanding my concern, believes that tactically OLC's letter is the best approach for dealing with Congress. He believes that depending on how the Bill progresses, the Agency can still deal with our Congressional Committees. He is awaiting further comment from other parts of the Agency and will send us a final draft of the letter.
